Exercise Breakdown with useful tips!

Our 'Digging Big Holes! Warm Up' video will get you doing some classic rabbit moves. Don't worry about copying our movement exactly, instead think about how you can make your movements more rabbit-like. Scratch those ears and twitch those noses!

- Start stood up with your arms up and hands curled into rabbit paws
- Dig a big rabbit hole! Make sure you use all of your rabbit arms. And then come back up to standing.
- Dig another big hole! At the bottom of the hole – look up. We want to see your best bunny face. And stand back up.
- Dig another big hole! Jump up and check your tail, jump back down your rabbit hole, and repeat. Stand back up.
- Dig another big hole! Check your tail x 2. Jump up and shake your leg, jump back into your hole, and repeat on the other side. Stand back up.
- Repeat everything that you've done so far and work those rabbit legs!
- (A) Step forward and place the same arm up, step forward with the other leg and place the other arm up. Step back and bring same hand behind your back, step back with your other leg and place the other hand behind your back. Repeat.
- Repeat x 2 same movement a bit faster but when you step back place your hands to your heart
- Repeat x 2 same movement but when you step back place your hands on your hips
- (B) With one leg step forward, side, back and jump your legs back together. Repeat on the other side.
- Repeat movement Sequence (A)
- Repeat movement Sequence (B)
- Jump around to the music, freestyle
- Grab your 'Maypole Ribbons', or whatever material you are using, and have your own dance! Use your whole body and use all the space. We want you to try and make some big and energetic shapes.
- Make big circles with your 'Maypole Ribbons' and end with a bow.

Cool Down
